ALEILAH VERGARA

Hi, I'm Aleilah Vergara, and I'm 13 years old! I'm not just your average teen, I'm a LEGO lover, an adventure seeker, and now... a cover girl! Ever since I was little, I've loved building things—LEGOSSSS are my absolute favorite (yes, with all those S's because I'm that excited about them). Creating something from nothing has always made me feel powerful and proud.

When it comes to modeling, I stepped into the spotlight to follow in my big sister's footsteps. She inspired me to be confident, bold, and to embrace who I am. And now, look I've made it to the cover! It's been an amazing journey, full of new experiences and fun challenges.

Being on the cover is such a dream come true, and now it's almost time to pass the crown to my next little sister. I hope I've inspired her (and others!) to chase their passions, just like I did. I'm extremely grateful for my family for being my supportive system. I am also extremely grateful for the Quinceañera Magazine for allowing me to have this experience and opportunity.

STEP 1: Planning a Quinceañera

Choosing the Perfect Date for a Quinceañera

When planning a quinceañera, selecting the right date is crucial. While it's typically held close to the birthday, any day of the year can work. Consider your guests' availability and avoid busy holidays like:

- New Year's
- Mother's and Father's Day
- Fourth of July
- Thanksgiving
- Super Bowl Sunday
- Valentine's Day
- Halloween
- Christmas season

Keep in mind the weather and the type of venue you prefer. Think about whether you want a warmer or cooler celebration and choose a season that suits your vision. Using a calendar with holidays can help identify ideal dates.

Committing to a date early on simplifies planning and coordination with vendors. If you need to change the date later, make sure to communicate this with everyone involved.

Ready to Dive In?

Now that you've picked the perfect date for your quinceañera, it's time to start planning all the magical details! From choosing the theme to finding the ideal venue, each step brings you closer to a day your family and friends will cherish forever. Let's make this celebration unforgettable!

STEP 2: Planning a Quinceañera

CREATE YOUR Quinceañera INSPIRATION board

The quinceañera is a once-in-a-lifetime event, and naturally, you want everything to be perfect. But how do you translate your vision into reality? The answer lies in creating an inspiration board—your very own visual guide that will help you pull together all the elements of your special day. This board will serve as your blueprint, keeping you focused on your theme, colors, and the overall vibe you want to achieve.

So, how do you go about it? Here's how you can start:

1. Close Your Eyes and Imagine the Day

Before you start collecting pictures or looking for ideas online, take a moment to picture the quinceañera of your dreams. Imagine yourself walking into a room full of stunning decorations, your gorgeous dress sparkling under the lights, and everyone you love gathered together to celebrate you. Ask yourself: What do I see? What stands out to me?

Think about the atmosphere you want to create. Is it romantic, glamorous, whimsical, or modern? Consider the overall feeling you want your quinceañera to evoke.

2. Pick Your Favorite Trends

Now that you have a vision in your mind, it's time to start gathering inspiration. Start by browsing magazines, websites, Pinterest, and social media platforms like Instagram. Search for your favorite quinceañera dresses, decorations, color schemes, beauty looks, and more. Focus on the following categories:

• QUINCEAÑERA DRESSES: What style are you imagining? Are you drawn to ballgowns, mermaid styles, or more modern, fitted silhouettes? Consider fabric choices—do you prefer lace, tulle, or satin? Think about the dress details too: sparkling embellishments, intricate embroidery, or a unique neckline.
Collect images of dresses that fit your vision, whether they're from designers or real-life quinceañeras.

• DECORATION THEMES: Would you like to have a floral theme, a fairytale ambiance, or a glamorous Hollywood look? Do you see a color palette that features pastels, bold tones, or metallic accents? Maybe you want a rustic vibe with wooden touches or a luxurious feel with chandeliers and gold accents. Add photos of different table settings, backdrops, and centerpieces to your board.

• COLOR PALETTE: Colors are a big part of your quinceañera's personality. What shades do you feel drawn to? Pink and gold? Lavender and silver? Or perhaps a combination of bold colors like turquoise, fuchsia, and yellow? Think about what colors resonate with your personality and vision. These colors will shape everything from your dress to the invitations to the decorations.

• BEAUTY LOOKS: What kind of makeup and hairstyle would you want to have on the big day? Do you want a romantic, soft look with natural makeup and loose curls, or a more dramatic style with bold eyeliner and an updo? Save pictures of makeup ideas and hairstyles that you adore.

3. Create Your Vision Board

Once you have gathered a collection of images that reflect your ideal quinceañera, it's time to assemble your board. You can do this digitally or physically, depending on your preference:

• DIGITAL VISION BOARD: Platforms like Pinterest, Canva, or Adobe Spark are great for creating a digital board. Simply drag and drop your favorite images into a design template and arrange them to match your vision. You can even add text or descriptions to elaborate on the elements you love.

• PHYSICAL VISION BOARD: If you love working with your hands, consider printing out your images and gluing them to a poster board. Arrange them in a way that feels balanced, and make sure the board reflects the overall mood and feel you want for your quinceañera

4. Analyze and Refine Your Choices

Once your board is complete, step back and take a look. Does it capture the essence of your quinceañera vision? Does everything feel cohesive, or are there elements that seem out of place? Take some time to analyze it and refine your choices. Remember, your vision board is a living document—it can evolve as your ideas change, but it's meant to give you clarity and direction.

5. Share Your Vision with Vendors designers, decorators, or makeup artists. It allows them to better understand your style and ensures that everyone is on the same page about your vision. It will make the entire planning process smoother and more focused.

WHY YOU NEED A VISION BOARD

Creating an inspiration board isn't just about gathering pretty pictures; it's about gaining clarity and focus for your quinceañera. By curating your favorite elements and organizing them visually, you will:

• IDENTIFY YOUR PERSONAL STYLE: You'll get a better sense of what truly reflects your personality.

• STAY ON TRACK: With so many ideas out there, it's easy to get overwhelmed. Your inspiration board helps you narrow things down.

• ENHANCE COMMUNICATION: It's a great tool to communicate your ideas to your family, planners, and vendors.

• GET EXCITED!: Seeing all your ideas come together is a huge morale booster and gets you more excited for your big day

conclusion

Your quinceañera is a moment to shine, and creating a vision board helps you de fine exactly how you want that moment to look and feel. Whether it's your dress, decor, or beauty look, your inspiration board will serve as a constant reminder of your dream day. As you continue planning, keep refining your ideas, stay true to your vision, and let your inspiration board guide you every step of the way.

Happy planning, and may your quinceañera be as beautiful and unique as you are!

STEP 3: Planning a Quinceañera

CREATE YOUR Guest List

One of the most exciting and essential steps in planning a quinceanera is creating the guest list. The people you invite will make the day even more special, and it's important to strike a balance between close family, friends, and loved ones. But how do you begin? Here's a simple guide to help you craft the perfect guest list for your quinceanera.

1 Start with the core group

The first people to consider for your quinceañera guest list are your immediate family and closest relatives. This includes:

Parents: Naturally, they are the heart and soul of the celebration.
Siblings: Don't forget to include your brothers and sisters.
Grandparents: Their presence will be invaluable and meaningful.
Aunts, uncles, and cousins: Depending on the size of your family, you may want to invite.

2 Consider your court of honor

The court of honor (or "la corte de honor") is a traditional part of a quinceanera. These are the friends and family members who will participate in the ceremony and accompanying dances. Typically, your court includes:

Los Chambelanes: These are the boys who will be your escorts during the formal dances.
Damas and Chambelanes: If you choose to have a larger court, these are additional friends or relatives who will accompany you during the event.

3 Include your closest friends

The quinceanra is not only a celebration of family but also of your friendships. This is your chance to invite the friends who have been with you through thick and thin. Think about:

School friends: Those who are close to your heart and have shared important moments in your life.
Sports team members: If you're part of a sports team, you might want to invite your teammates.
Club or activity friends: Whether you're involved in music, art, or a social club, make sure to consider the friends you've made in these areas too.

4 Thinking about the atmosphere

The vibe of your quinceanera should also influence your guest list. For example, if you're planning a smaller, more intimate gathering, you may want to limit the guest list to family and a few close friends. On the other hand, if you're going for a larger, grander celebration, your guest list will likely be longer.

It's important to keep in mind the atmosphere you want to create—whether it's fun and casual or elegant and formal—when making your decisions.

5 Respect your parents' wishes

In many cases, parents may have suggestions for people they would like to invite, especially close friends, colleagues, or family members you may not know well. It's important to discuss this with your parents and come to an agreement on who should be included in the celebration. Quinceañera are a family affair, and their input will help you create a guest list that reflects your family's values and traditions.

STEP 4: Planning a Quinceañera

Plan a Budget

Discussing Your Budget from the Start

Before you dive into the excitement of choosing a venue, dress, or party favors, it's crucial to set a budget. This step is often overlooked, but it's one of the most important parts of quinceanera planning. A solid budget allows you to manage your expectations, prioritize your spending, and avoid any financial surprises as the big day approaches.

Start by determining how much you (and your family) are comfortable spending on the celebration. Factor in all the potential expenses—from the venue and catering to the dress, decorations, photography, and entertainment. Make sure to include the often-overlooked costs like transportation, invitations, and a court of honor (damas and chambelanes) if you plan to have one. You can always adjust the budget as you go along, but having an initial figure gives you a clear framework for making decisions.

Oscar Pedroza, Kansas City

My Quince Budget:

Breaking Down the Costs list:

Having a detailed breakdown of the expected expenses will help you keep track of where your money is going. Here's an example of what a quinceañera budget might look like:

1. Venue: $3,000 - $10,000 (depending on location and size)
2. Catering/Food: $1,500 - $3,000
3. Dress: $500 - $2,000
4. Photography & Videography: $1,000 - $2,500
5. DJ/ Band: $500 - $2,000
6. Decorations: $500 - $1,500
7. Invitations: $200 - $500
8. Transportation: $300 - $1,000
9. Court of Honor (Damas & Chambelanes): $200 - $1,000
10. Hair & Makeup: $300 - $1,000
11. Miscellaneous: $200 - $500 (party favors, gifts, etc.)

Of course, every quinceanera is different, and these prices can vary greatly depending on the scale of the event and where you're located. Keep in mind that certain expenses can be shared or donated by padrinos, which can significantly ease the financial load. For instance, a padrino might offer to cover the cost of the dress or a madrina might take care of the cake.

STEP 5: Planning a Quinceañera

BOOK YOUR CHURCH FOR THE QUINCEAÑERA CEREMONY

A VITAL STEP IN YOUR PLANNING

Booking the church for your quinceañera is a key part of the planning process. The ceremony begins the day's sacred celebration, so securing the right church early helps ensure everything goes smoothly. Here's a comprehensive guide to help you navigate this crucial step.

1. CHOOSE THE RIGHT CHURCH FOR THE CEREMONY

The first step is to choose a church that reflects the spiritual meaning of the quinceañera and fits your family's traditions.

- CONSIDER RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION: Pick a church that matches your faith and ask about any specific requirements.
- CAPACITY AND LOCATION: Make sure it can hold your guests and is conveniently located.
- ACCESSIBILITY: Ensure it's accessible for elderly guests and those with mobility needs.

ART DIGITAL STUDIOS, KANSAS CITY

2. INQUIRE ABOUT AVAILABILITY

Churches can be booked months or even a year in advance, especially during peak wedding and quinceañera seasons.

- CHECK THE DATE AND TIME: Confirm your desired date and exact service time as churches may host multiple events in one day.
- CONSIDER THE TIME OF DAY: Choose a time that fits well with your schedule, including the reception, photos, and transportation.

3. REVIEW CHURCH REQUIREMENTS AND GUIDELINES

Each church has its own set of requirements and expectations when it comes to quinceañera services. It's important to review these carefully to avoid surprises.

- CONFIRMATION CLASSES: Some churches require the quinceañera to complete these before the ceremony—check dates and deadlines.
- MEETING WITH PRIEST/OFFICIANT: A meeting may be needed to go over ceremony details like vows and readings.
- SERVICE FORMAT: Decide on a full Mass, blessing, or simpler ceremony, and confirm what's allowed regarding music and rituals.
- DECORATIONS: Some churches limit décor or require specific florists, so clarify rules before planning decorations.

4. REVIEW THE CONTRACT AND FEES

Once the church is available and you've discussed the details, you'll typically be asked to sign a contract.

- DEPOSIT AND PAYMENTS: Be aware of the deposit amount, due dates, and any extra fees.
- ADDITIONAL COSTS: Ask about charges for sound equipment, staff, or photo time.
- CANCELLATION POLICY: Understand the terms for cancellations or rescheduling.

5. FINALIZE AND STAY ORGANIZED

Once you've secured the church, it's time to organize the details.

- CONFIRM THE SCHEDULE: Double-check the ceremony time and share it with family and vendors.
- PREPARE FOR THE REHEARSAL: If required, schedule a rehearsal and ensure key participants can attend.
- CREATE A CHECKLIST: List all tasks to complete before the ceremony, like documents and special arrangements.

6. MAKE A LIST OF PENDING ITEMS

Several weeks before the quinceañera, create a checklist of pending items for the ceremony:

- Complete Confirmation Classes (if applicable).
- Prepare a list of readings and music for the service.
- Confirm with the church about any additional requests or changes.
- Coordinate with the priest or officiant regarding special requests for the ceremony.

STEP 7: Planning a Quinceañera

Pick your Padrinos

HONOR THE ONES YOU LOVE

Planning a Quinceañera is a big journey—but you don't have to do it alone. One of the most meaningful traditions in a Quince is inviting special people in your life to be your Padrinos and Madrinas. These are the family members and close friends who help support your celebration—financially, emotionally, and spiritually.

Why choose padrinos?

Padrinos aren't just helpers—they're part of your story. Many are honored to be asked because it shows how much they mean to you. Plus, having padrinos can make the planning more manageable by sharing the costs of specific items.

When to Start Asking

We recommend choosing your padrinos about 11 months before your celebration. This gives everyone enough time to plan and prepare for their contribution.

What Can They Help With?

Traditionally, padrinos are assigned a specific item or responsibility. Some ideas include:

- Your Tiara or Dress
- The Cake
- Invitations
- Souvenirs or Party Favors
- Photography/Videography
- Bible, Rosary & Kneeling Pillow
- Or even a donation to the overall event

Assigning items not only makes it easier to organize but also gives each padrino a clear role in your big day.

How to Ask with Love and Respect

When asking someone to be your padrino or madrina, make it special and sincere. Here's an example message you can personalize:

"Because you are such an important part of my life, I was wondering if I could count on you to be my Padrino/Padrina of [insert item]. It would mean so much to me to have your support on my special day."

You can ask in person, over a call, or even with a handwritten note or small gift.

Final TIP

Keep track of who accepted, what they are sponsoring, and communicate with them as your planning continues. Remember: being a padrino is an honor—let them know how much you appreciate their help!

STEP 8: Planning a Quinceañera

10 Months Before – Choose Your Quinceañera Theme

Your theme is more than just decoration—it's the heart of your celebration! At 10 months out, it's time to choose a theme that reflects your personality, your style, and your dream vision for your big day.

Alex Hernandez Photo, Dallas, TX

How to Choose the Perfect Quince Theme

1. Revisit your inspiration board

Now's the moment to go back to the ideas, photos, and pins you've collected. What stands out the most? Which concepts keep catching your eye? Sort them in order of preference to help narrow your focus.

2. Sort by color palette

Group your ideas by color. This will help you visualize your décor, dresses, flowers, and even invitations. The right color combo can bring your theme to life in a beautiful and cohesive way.

3. Think practically

Is this theme realistic? Ask yourself:

- Can it be executed at your venue?
- Will it fit within your budget?
- Is it something your decorator or planner can easily create?

4. Consider your story

Your theme should feel personal. Whether you love fairytales, Parisian glam, vintage charm, or vibrant cultural traditions—choose something that feels meaningful to YOU.

Modern & Trendy Quinceañera theme ideas

1 Met Gala Glam:
High fashion, bold looks, dramatic decor.

2 Bridgerton:
Inspired Royal Ball – Pastels, lace, elegance.

3 Coquette Core:
Soft pink, bows, pearls, vintage romantic vibes.

4 Futuristic Neon Glow:
LED lights, holographic accents, glow party.

5 Barbie Dream Quince:
Hot pink, sparkle, glam everything.

6 Cultural Fusion:
Traditional roots mixed with modern glam.

7 Red Carpet Premiere:
VIP badges, photo walls, celebrity entrance.

8 Garden Disco:
Florals meet disco balls, retro-fun.

9 Celestial Goddess:
Stars, moons, constellations, gold & navy.

10 Fashion Runway:
Catwalk, spotlight moments, multiple outfit changes.

11 Enchanted Forest:
Twinkling lights, greenery, whimsical fairy-tale vibe.

STEP 9: Planning a Quinceañera

Alex Hernandez Photo, Dallas, TX

Choose a color palette

Your color palette sets the tone for your entire Quinceañera, so take your time choosing colors that reflect your personality, your vision, and your theme.

HERE´S WHAT TO CONSIDER:

- START WITH YOUR FAVORITE COLOR
  List your top 3 colors and sort them in order of how much you love them.

- PICK 2 MAIN COLORS
  These will serve as your central colors — but don't be afraid to mix in complementary shades or metallics (like gold, silver, or rose gold) for accents.

- THINK ABOUT YOUR THEME
  Do you want a fairytale, glam, boho, or classic vibe? Make sure your colors match the overall style you envision.

- CHECK WITH VENDORS
  Some decoration or dress colors may be harder to find than others. It's important that your chosen palette is accessible to your decorators, dress designer, and cake artist.

PRO TIP:

Create a mood board with fabric swatches, flower photos, dress colors, and invitation samples to visualize how everything will come together.

LATINA CONSUMERS are Shaping the Future . . .

and We see it at EVERY EXPO!

There's no denying the influence Latina consumers have on today's market. According to Nielsen, Latinas are not only culturally connected and socially conscious—they're also highly educated, financially aware, and leading the way in entrepreneurship.

They're young, driven, and part of an intercultural mainstream that's reshaping everything from media and fashion to tech and finance. At our Quinceañeras Magazine Expos, we see it first-hand—families showing up ready to celebrate tradition while also discovering brands that understand their culture and lifestyle.

The modern quinceañera celebration brings together more than just dresses and music. It's a space where moms, dads, tias, abuelas, and teens are exploring products, booking services, and connecting with businesses that speak their language—literally and culturally.

It's exciting to witness how much influence Latinas have in the decision-making process. From what's trending on social to what gets added to the shopping cart—Latinas are leading.

We love creating spaces where brands and Latina consumers can meet, talk, and build lasting relationships. And as this audience continues to grow, it's clear that their voice and buying power will continue to shape the future—for all of us.

We can help you in the first step—contact us!
